PEACHTREE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Pastoral Prayer & The Lord's Prayer (unison)

Rev. Jim Bell

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name.
Thy Kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen

Special Music

Julie Koenig, harp

Hymn of Resurrection #33

"How Great Thou Art"
O Store Gud

Carol Murphy Nugent

1941-2023

Carol was born on Christmas Eve 1941 at Crawford W. Long Hospital in Atlanta. She graduated from Headland High School in East Point (Class of 1959) and subsequently the University of Georgia with a B.S. in Journalism and Consumer Sciences. While at the University of Georgia, she pledged Delta Delta Delta sorority (making dear life-long friends) and worked at the Red & Black school newspaper. She was Sweetheart of the Campus at Georgia Military Academy (now Woodward Academy), was Miss Technique (the yearbook beauty queen at Georgia Tech in 1963), and was Miss East Point (representing her hometown in the Miss Georgia pageant in 1963).

At the young age of 22, she kicked off her career as Food Editor for the Atlanta Constitution, after interviewing with Ralph McGill. Thereafter she worked in the U.S. Department of Agriculture in consumer marketing, at the Georgia office of Economic Opportunity, as Spokesperson for the Southeast Dairy Association, and in various capacities at Rountree Public Relations Group, Peachtree Plastic Surgery, and the office of Sandra Fryhofer, M.D.

She was known for her generosity, energy, and legendary sense of humor, and was a beloved wife, mother, and friend to many. Carol married Richard Allison Pollock in 1965 and later Jeffrey Talbott Nugent in 2009, both of whom were graduates of the Emory University School of Medicine Class of 1968. She was actively involved through the years at church having served both as a co-founder of Stephen Ministry at Peachtree Presbyterian Church under the guidance of Rev. Frank Harrington, which included her involvement in a Habitat for Humanity build in Ireland. After marrying Jeff, she then became an active member of Peachtree Christian Church where she was a member of the Fellowship Sunday school class, continued her work as a Stephen Minister, and supported the Peachtree Christian Hospice annual galas.

Carol was very focused on charitable work, having served on the Board of the Georgia chapter of the Arthritis Foundation, as Chairman for the Crystal Ball benefitting the Arthritis Foundation, and twice as Co-Chairman of the Crescendo Ball to benefit the Brain Injury Association of Georgia. She enjoyed supporting Piedmont Hospital over the years through the Woman's Auxiliary, as Chairman of the Candystripers, and as Publicity Chair for the Piedmont Ball.

She was most proud of her children, grandchildren (who call her "CiCi"), and those she served in the community. She spent countless hours at the Westminster Schools supporting her children, cooking wonderful meals for the family each night, gardening and traveling extensively with Jeff, loving on her cats, listening to upbeat music, and competing in ballroom dancing. She valued family time spent at Big Canoe, Georgia and sunrises at Surfside Beach, South Carolina. She was always quick to smile, lend a hand and support those in need. She will be sorely missed, but her legacy of love and laughter will live on.

Psalm 23

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: he leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul: he leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies: thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

BENEDICTION

“Go in Peace. Remember that by the goodness of God you were born.

Remember that in the mercy of Jesus Christ you have been redeemed.

Remember that He walks with you every day to comfort you, to strengthen, and to guide.

He promised He would. ‘Lo, I am with you always.’

Remember that while others have called you servants, He has named you friends.

In the strength of that mighty friendship, go forth now to serve in the Master's name..

Till we meet again.”

Rev. Dr. Frank Harrington
